Will I get lost?

We hope so! That's part of the fun! We have designed the maze to be an interactive activity that makes a trip inside the maze more than just a haphazard stroll.

Solve a crime scene investigation while in the maze.

Option 1: The Farm Scene Tracks. Farmer Joe's pie is missing. We need you to find out who stole it. Six of the animals took off through the corn maze with the stolen pie. Navigate the corn maze to find all the tracks, and then match up the prints to all the animals that are guilty of the pie thievery.

Option 2: Farm Scene Investigation (similar to Clue©). Farmer Joe is missing and we need your help to find out who kidnapped him. There are seven animal suspects, weapons, and locations that we need you to investigate. Players collect all the clues on a punch card that they take through the maze to solve the mystery and earn an FSI badge.

Is the maze lighted at night?

No. Please bring your own flashlight or you can purchase one at our location.

How do you make the maze?

We plant the whole field in late July and then take out the design when the plants are very short. The design is created on a computer and then transferred into the maze acreage.

How big is the maze?

The maze itself is approximately 10 acres. It is divided into three mazes (Kids, Adventurous, and Insane).

Can I eat the corn?

You could, but it would not taste very good. The variety of corn that we grow is field corn for cattle.

Is the maze haunted?

No. The focus for our fall maze is fun for the whole family.

Are you open Halloween night?

Yes, we are open through October 31st.

Is there security at McCoard's Mystery Maze?

Yes, security is present nightly.

Yes, everyone who visits McCoard's Mystery Maze is here to have fun. We do not allow foul language, pushing, vulgar behavior, weapons of any kind, alcohol, etc. We have a list of rules just like anyone else that must be adhered to for your own safety. Violation of these rules will usually bring a warning but you could be asked to leave without a refund.
